NG Positioning Cushions

Clinician selection guide · Adult & pediatric · 2026

The EverPod™ difference

Lightweight, resilient pods move within the cushion so you can contour support around the body and accommodate asymmetry. Under load the pods nest to create stable support without a rigid feel — form maintained through 50,000 pressure cycles.

Genuine Dartex® fabric

Waterproof, breathable, wipeable four-way-stretch medical fabric. Compatible with hospital-grade disinfectant wipes per the cleaning instructions, and suitable for multiple residents when properly cleaned and disinfected.

Multi-use by design

Use each cushion on its own or combine it with others across lying, seated and transitional positions — more positioning options from fewer products, which simplifies selection, storage and staff training.
